

Services will be 11:00am Saturday August 22, 2015 at Tabernacle Baptist Church for Hillman Crum who departed this life, Monday August 17 at Dandridge's Burgundi Manor.

Mr. Crum was born December 19, 1936 in Ripley, MS., a son of Azzie and Freddie L. Vance Crum. He was a graduate of Line State High School and had attended Youngstown State University. He was a member of Tabernacle Baptist Church where he served in the Trustee, Usher, Male Chorus and Choir Ministries. He was an avid sports fan and loved the Cleveland Browns Football team, the Cleveland Cavaliers Basket Ball team and the Cleveland Indians Baseball team. He also loved fishing and gardening especially flowers and vegetables but most of all he loved his family dearly.

He leaves to mourn his passing and rejoice in his peace, seven siblings; Sarah Helen Johnson, Marjorie Johnson, Samuel T. (Martha) Crum, Beatrice Cowan and Anthony (Sheila) Crum all of Ripley, MS.; Gary E. Crum and James (Mary) Crum of Youngstown; nieces and nephews whom he helped rear Angela, Timothy and Sharon Smith, Jeffrey Floyd Davis and Randall Ransaw all of Youngstown and a host of other nieces, nephews other relatives and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents and siblings B.W. Crum, Henry Earl Crum and Flora B. Crum. Friends may call one hour prior to the services from 10-11:00 am at the church. Arrangements were entrusted to L.E. Black, Phillips & Holden Funeral Home.