

Services will be 11:00 a.m. Saturday, February 21, 2015 at the Mt. Calvary Pentecostal Church for Mr. James Curtis Daniels, 61, of Youngstown, was called from labor into eternal rest on Sunday, February 15, 2015 at his home.

Mr. Daniels, affectionately known as “Curtis” by his family and friends, was born September 8, 1953 in Savannah, GA, a son of James and Lather King Daniels, coming to the Youngstown area July 18, 1987. He was a 1970 graduate of Beach High School in Savannah, and continued his education at Savannah State University. He played football at both schools. He had been employed as a terminal Manager for 30 years with Greyhound Bus Lines. He was a member of Mt. Calvary Pentecostal Church, where he served in Tel-a-World Media Ministries, and an intercessor. James loved to play the guitar and was a musician in the music ministry.

He leaves to forever cherish his memories, his beloved wife and love of his life, the former Linda Ivey, whom he married December 27, 1980; sisters, Addie (Elijah) Martin and Betty (Clide) Rodgers both of Savannah, GA; sons and daughters in love, Jay (Sonja) Williams of Silver Spring, MD, Milton (Leslie) Gage of Davenport, IA, Monique Phifer of Columbus, Kevanne Dobbs of Youngstown, and Andre Marks of Herndon, Virginia; and a host of nephews, nieces, other family and friends.

Besides his parents, he was preceded in death by a sister, Ronell Mayes.

Friends may call Saturday from 10:00 – 11:00 a.m. at the church. Final Resting place will be at the Woodville Cemetery in Savannah, Georgia.

In lieu of flowers, please make monetary contributions to his beloved widow in his memory.

Arrangements entrusted to the L. E. Black, Phillips & Holden Funeral Home.
