

Jackie Harris, 70, transitioned into eternal rest on Wednesday morning, Feb. 25, 2015, at home, with his son at his side.

Jackie was born in Dermott, Ark. on June 6, 1944, to J.W. Harris and Gussie York. He moved to Youngstown with his family in 1954. He was a graduate of South High School. He retired from Parker Hannifin, formerly known as Commercial Shearing and Stamping, in 2010, after 39 years of employment. Jackie's favorite hobbies were fishing with his best friend, Carl Hilton, and walking to Walmart and Giant Eagle every day.

He leaves to cherish his memory, one son, Maurice Vincent Harris, with whom he made his home; six sisters, Gloria Thompson and Sabrina Wallace of Marietta, Ga., Laura Wallace of Raleigh, N.C., Barbara Larkin of Tracy, Calif., Dorothy Bailey of Chicago, and Angela Faye Campbell of Rock Island, Ill.; and three brothers, England Wallace of Youngstown, Larry Wallace of Chicago, and John W. Harris of Desoto, Texas. He also leaves two granddaughters, Daria and Alysha Symone Harris of Youngstown; daughter-in-law Jada Harris; the mother of his son, Patricia Traylor; his brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law, nieces, nephews, other family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents and grandparents. A memorial service will be held on Saturday, March 7, 2015, at 1 p.m. at the Victory Lutheran Church. Arrangements are entrusted to the L.E. Black, Phillips & Holden Funeral Home.
