

Services will be 10:00 a.m., Saturday, November 8, 2014 at the World Fellowship Interdenominational Church, 494 W. Dewey Avenue for Mrs. Helen Summers, 94, Youngstown, Ohio, who passed away Sunday, November 2, 2014.

Mrs. Summers was born March 27, 1920 in Buena Vista, Georgia, a daughter of Tavis and Elizabeth McMichael Moore. She was a 1938 graduate of South High School. She had worked as an office manager at Boynton Hospital while residing in Del Ray Beach, Florida, retiring in 1981. She was a member of World Fellowship Interdenominational Church, under the pastorate of her mother, The Rev. Elizabeth Powell, who founded the church in 1962 and pastored for 45 years. She enjoyed fishing and traveling. Helen returned to Youngstown to take care of her mother.

She leaves to mourn her passing, but rejoice in her peace, a son, Rev. Harry W. (Rosenita) Proctor; a daughter, Sandra Saunders both of Columbus; a sister, Rev. Joyce Moten of Burgettstown, PA; 10 grandchildren; 11 great grandchildren; a great-great granddaughter; and a host of family and friends.

Besides her father; mother and stepfather, Rev. Elizabeth and Marion Powell, she was preceded in death by a son, Edward Langley Proctor, Sr.; a grandson, Juno Chandler; and a son-in-law, John Saunders.

Friends may call Saturday from 9:00 to 10:00 a.m. at the church. In Lieu of Flowers, the family request monetary contributions be made to the World Fellowship Interdenominational Scholarship Fund.

Arrangements entrusted to the L. E. Black, Phillips & Holden Funeral Home.
