

On Wednesday, May 6, 2015, Jesus sent His Angels to Akron Children's Hospital in Akron, Ohio, to gently cradle and bring to His side, Infant Bernard Nathaniel Owens, Jr., 2 weeks of age. Bernard was greeted by other children, ready to join hands with him and play.

Bernard was born April 20, 2015 in Akron, a son of Bernard Nathaniel Owens, Sr. and Marilyn Lavette Spencer. For the short time he graced this earth, he was loved by many. He leaves to cherish his memory, his parents; three brothers, Jonathan R. Spencer, Marqualyn T. Spencer and Brandon N. Owens; two sisters, Aun'Shay Bennett and Tara M. Jackson all of Warren; grandparents, Debra A. Spencer of Youngstown and Darlene M. Owens of Warren; great grandmother, Lucille Winlock of Youngstown.

He was also greeted at Heaven's gate by his grandparents, John Spencer, Marie M. Owens and Cleveland Cornelius; and great grandfathers, William Winlock, Jr. and Mann Mallory, Sr.

Friends may visit with the family at the L. E. Black, Phillips and Holden Funeral Home, 1951 McGuffey Rd., Youngstown on Wednesday, May 13, 2015 from 10:00 – 11:00 a.m. Funeral services will follow at 11:00 a.m. at the funeral home.
