

On Sunday evening, Feb. 15, 2015, at St. Elizabeth Health Center in Youngstown, God sent his angels to escort one of his servants home. Elder Eddie L. Jackson Sr. 68, was greeted by “Well done, thou good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.”

Elder Jackson was born Jan. 22, 1947, in Haynesville, Ala., the son of Mary Jackson Williams, and was raised by his grandparents, James and Mary Elizabeth Dudley Jackson.

He was a 1966 graduate of Hubbard High School and attended Kent State University. He had been employed with General Motors Lordstown for 30 years, retiring in 1995. He pastored the Bibleland Church of God In Christ for 30 years and was District Superintendent of the Hubbard District for 15 years. His passion was preaching the Word of God, with the mission of teaching and living, so men, women and children may know the true God of the Bible unto salvation. His hobbies were construction work and landscaping, and he enjoyed being with his family, church family and friends. He was a man of great compassion and concern for the well being of others. He was a U.S. Army veteran, serving in Germany.

He leaves to cherish his beloved memory, but rejoice in his peace, his much loved and devoted wife, the former Elizabeth L. Jackson, whom he married May 22, 1971; Mona Jackson (Kenneth) Harrell and Elder Eddie L. (Michelle) Jackson Jr.; his loving mother, Mary Williams; eight brothers, Elder Louis (Simmie) Jackson of Hubbard, Elder John W. (Gloria) Jackson Sr. of Hubbard, Elder Stafford (Bobbie Jean) Jackson of Liberty, Elder Clarence (Jacqueline) Jackson Sr. of Tallmadge, Tommy Jackson of Youngstown, Jesse Williams of Hubbard, and Lincoln Nathaniel (Faun) Williams of Youngstown; five sisters, Bernice Hallman of Youngstown, Jill Jackson of Youngstown, Matricia (Hosea) Britt of Bedford, and Lorinda (Elder Andrew) Carlisle of Hubbard and Diana (Dan) Houston of Youngstown; brother-in-law Dr. Herman (Beryl) Jackson of Brownsville, Pa.; sisters-in-law, Edith Jackson, of Youngstown, Carla Jackson of Charlotte, N.C.; three grandchildren, Faith L. Jackson, India V. Jackson and Eddie L. Jackson III; and a host of nieces, nephews, church family and friends.

He was preceded in death by James and Mary Elizabeth Jackson; step-grandmother, Willie Mae Berger-Jackson; stepfather, Lincoln Williams; three brothers, Willie Richard Jackson, James (Sarah) Jackson; James Edward Jackson III; and five step-brothers, Alphonso Berger, William Berger Jr., Chester Berger, Sam Berger, and Charles Berger.
