

Services will be 12:00 noon on Friday, December 5, 2014 at the L. E. Black, Phillips & Holden Funeral Home for Mr. Twana Darnell Johnson, 41 of Campbell who departed this earthly life Monday, November 24, 2014.

Mr. Johnson, affectionately known as “Tubby” was born July 6, 1973 in Youngstown, a son of Clarence Williams and Norma J. Johnson. He attended Youngstown City Schools. He had been employed with various fast food restaurants in the Youngstown-Warren areas, with his last employment being at the Golden Corral in Boardman. In his younger years, he had joined the Job Corp. Tubby enjoyed working on cars for family and friends and family gatherings. He attended St. James C.O.G.I.C. in Warren and recently stated that he made some changes in his life to be an example for his cousins, friends and others.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his father of Youngstown; his mother and stepfather, Simmie and Norma J. McIntosh of Campbell; three children, Courtney Jones, De’Shawn and Josiah Johnson all of Youngstown; brothers, Clarence Williams Jr. of Youngstown and Shonnie D. Floyd of Florida; sisters, Patricia Williams of Akron and Carmen Hill of Warren; his grandmother, Emma J. Johnson Hester of Youngstown; his fiancé, Lisa Coleman of Warren; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other family and friends.

He was preceded in death by two sisters, Charlene and Clarice Williams; grandparents, James Williams, and Johnnie and Dorothy Williams.

Friends may call Friday from 11:00 a.m. – 12:00 noon at the funeral home.