

Service will be 11:00 a.m. Monday, November 3, 2014 at the New Beginning Outreach Ministry, 2007 S. Schenley Avenue, Youngstown, for Mr. Londres “Nank” Williams, 88, of Boardman, who departed this life, Tuesday, October 28, 2014 at St. Elizabeth Health Center – Boardman.

Mr. Williams was born November 18, 1925 in Warren, Ohio, a son of Irvin and Gardenia Brogdon Williams. He was a 1943 graduate of Warren G. Harding High School and attended Warren Business College. Londres had been employed for 38 years as a postal clerk with the U. S. Postal Service, retiring December 31, 1983. He was a member of New Beginning Outreach Ministry. Mr. Williams loved golf, traveling and manicuring his yard. He and his wife of 64 years, Mary, had a passion for traveling. Some of their destinations were: Brazil, Africa, Spain, France, Germany, Hawaii, Italy and Jamaica to name a few. Lovingly known as “snow birds”, they spent their winters in Florida. Londres was a World War II Army Veteran.

He will be sadly missed by his wife, the former Mary E. West, whom he married in 1950; two daughters, Diane McKinney of Atlanta, GA and Tami Hammond of Boardman; a sister, Gloria Alexander; a brother, Elder Irvin Williams both of Warren; three grandchildren; two great grandchildren; and a host of family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents; a sister, Helena Williams; four brothers, Hulon, Martin, Holloman and Edward Williams; and a grandson, Tarreyn Williams .

Friends may call Monday from 10:00 – 11:00 a.m. at the church. Arrangements entrusted to the L. E. Black, Phillips & Holden Funeral Home.
