

Services will be Friday, June 19, 2015 at 11:00 a.m. at the Victory Christian Center, Coitsville Campus, for Mr. Clarence L. McDowell, 60, of Youngstown, who departed this life, Thursday, June 11, 2015 at St. Elizabeth Health Center – Youngstown.

Mr. McDowell was born May 29, 1955 in Youngstown, a son of Clarence and Tommie Dale Harmon McDowell. He was a 1973 graduate of The Rayen School. He was present employed with Hynes Industries as a material handler and had worked there for 18 years. He was a member of Victory Christian Center, Liberty Campus where he served on the First Touch Ministry. He was a member and former Vice President of Steelworkers Local 2377. He enjoyed fishing, and all of the Cleveland sports teams (Cavaliers, Browns, and Indians).

He leaves to cherish his beloved memories, his father of Youngstown; his devoted and loving wife, the former Patricia Wilburn, whom he married April 7, 1990; four children, Cameron (Jennifer) Pettway of San Antonio, TX, Latherall Pettway and Wayne Smith, Jr. both of Columbus, and ShaCorey Wilburn of Youngstown; two brothers, James (Jessie) Parker, Sr. of Tampa, FL and Kenneth V. McDowell of Dallas, TX; two sisters, Charolette Williams of Youngstown and Toni D. (Charles) Brown of Houston, TX; four grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

He was greeted at Heaven's Gate by his mother, and a sister, Sheri L. Wallace.

Friends may call from 10:00 – 11:00 a.m. at the church. Arrangements entrusted to the L. E. Black, Phillips & Holden Funeral Home.
