

Services will be 11:00 a.m. Saturday, March 21, 2015 at the L. E. Black, Phillips & Holden Funeral Home for Mrs. Iris Law Prima, 63, of Jonesboro, GA, who entered eternal rest on Saturday, March 14, 2014 at her home surrounded by her loving family.

Mrs. Prima, affectionately known as “Rea”, and “Nana” by her grandchildren, was born October 1, 1951 in Youngstown, a daughter of John K. and Lessie Adair Ratliff. She attended Youngstown City Schools. She was employed at Colonial Manor Nursing home for many years; and was a member of The Place Where the Lord Provides Church. Upon moving to Georgia, she united with the Faith Temple of Praise Church under the pastorate of Rev. Larolyn Moore.

Iris was a very loveable person and never met a stranger she didn’t “hug”. She was a great admirer and supporter of her family. As a dedicated and loving mother, she supported her children in all aspects of their activities, football, danceline, track and gymnastics.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her husband, Charles of Youngstown; her daughters, Shawntell Law (Richard) North and Michelle Law (Gerald) Silva both of Atlanta, GA; sons, Andre Law of Atlanta, GA and Kemontey Law of Youngstown; stepson, Brandon Reid of Columbus; adopted niece, Lessie Moore, whom she reared as a daughter; siblings, Keith Vance, Clark Vance and Cheryl Perkins; an aunt, Christine Sinkfield; 18 grandchildren; 10 great grandchildren; and a host of family and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents; sisters, Donna J. Washington and Annie Moore; brothers, Ronald Law, Ira Law and Kenneth Vance.

Visitation hours will be Saturday from 10:00 – 11:00 a.m. at the funeral home.
